Dear The Federal Communications Commission,

Dear Chairman Martin:

I am 83 years old and I retired some twenty years ago. The only increase in income I have had in the twenty years was in my social security. I use the Tracfone card and phone and I only use it as security in my automobile. I know the Democrats like to spend more money and then raise the taxes to pay for all the give-aways.

I don't understand what you are facing in your new job and I know you are under a lot of pressure, I trust that you will keep us little people in mind when you and your commission make the decision to regulate the rates on the long distance costs.

God bless you and our country and I wish you the very best in your new job.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely, Robert K Decker
